The Agency will refer available and qualified providers to the Client based on the information provided by the Client on the Temporary Placement Order. In consideration of the referral provided by the Agency, the Client will pay the Agency a placement fee determined by the Agency's current Temporary Fee Schedule for each day a provider listed with the Agency is employed by the Client. This responsibility to pay the placement fee for Agency providers retained by the Client remains in effect even if the Client ceases to be an actively listed Client of the Agency.

Providers referred by the Agency have agreed, in writing, that they will not accept direct employment from any Client of the Agency unless they have been referred through the Agency. As a Client of the Agency, you must not directly solicit or engage the services of any of the Agency's listed providers except through the Agency.
